Funeral services will be held in Sioux City Sunday for Lieut. Wm. C. Severesen. Lieut. Severesen was killed in action in the St. Mihiel sector on the morning of September 23, 1918, when fragments of a high explosive shell struck him in the head, killing him instantly. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chris Severesen, reside at 413 Allen street.
Lieut. Severesen enlisted in the army in Sioux City, August 17, 1917, and was sent to Fort Snelling, Minn., where, after three months' training, he was commissioned a lieutenant. He was sent from the officers' training school to Camp Funston, where he became a member of the Three Hundred and Fifty-sixth infantry. He sailed for France June 2, 1918. A month later his regiment was ordered to the St. Mihiel sector, where he served two months before his death.

At the meeting of the board of equalization of Dakota county Tuesday the assessment of the Nebraska end of the combination bridge was fixed by the board at $300,000. The bridge company announced its intention to fight the assessment in the courts. The former figures at which the bridge was assessed was $200,000.
The school bond election held in the newly organized district, No. 55, between Hubbard and Goodwin, Saturday, voted down the proposition of bonding the district for $5,000 with which to build a school house. The vote was 17 for and 15 against. It requires 60% of the total vote to carry a bond proposition. As the matter now stands they have a fine new district, but no school house.
County Judge S. W. McKinley officiated at the following weddings the past week: Wm. L. Garner and Martha Breisch, both of Newcastle, Neb., on the 1st; James C. Washburn and Katie Bell, of Sioux City, Bert Santee and Eycle Smith of South Sioux City, Clyde Reeves and Anna Miller of Sioux City, and Archie Brown and Florence Deer of Winnebago, Neb., on the 2nd; and Robert L. Nawley and Viola L. Breitbach of Sioux City, on the 3rd.

Another angle has developed in the robbery of James Mahon's home near Ponca on June 25th, when about $300 worth of clothing, etc., was taken. Two forged checks have made their appearance at the banks, and it now develops that a farm hand is the party at the bottom of the deal. The Dixon county officers are on his trail.
By the courtesy of the American Protective Tariff League, New York, we are in receipt of an elaborate and useful document entitled "Wages in the United States and Foreign Countries," issued by the Committee on Ways and Means, House of Representatives, Washington. The document is based upon the testimony before the Ways and Means Committee during the recent hearings which was verified and amplified through official sources. It contains no argument but simply facts, which ought to be in the hands of every citizen. Write to your Congressman and ask him for a copy of "Wages in the United States and Foreign Countries."

On Wednesday, June 29th, Mr. Rennerick Dobbs and Miss Beatrice Blume, both of Emerson, were united in marriage by Rev. C. E. Towner of the First Congregational church in Sioux City. They were attended by Mr. Glen Giegar and Miss Ruby Dobbs. After a short trip through southern Iowa they will be at home to their many friends in Emerson. Mrs. Dobbs was born and raised in Dakota county. She is a graduate of the Emerson high school and the Fremont Normal college. She is also well known in Dakota City, where she lived for a number of years when her father was county treasurer. Up until a year before her marriage she was bookkeeper in the Farmers State bank of Emerson. Her charming personality has won for her many friends. Mr. Dobbs is a promising young business man of Emerson, being in partnership with his father in the City Meat Market. He is a young man of sterling qualities and is held in high esteem by all who know him.
The enrollment in boys and girls clubs over the state now numbers more than 4,000. Eleven kinds of clubs have been formed for the purpose of interesting boys and girls in farming, stock raising, and homemaking. The clubs and their enrollment on June 15 follow: Calf, 167; canning, 87; cooking, 584; corn, 23; garden, 241; garment, 753; pig, 1,109; potato, 15; poultry, 820; rabbit, 10; and sheep, 11. Each club has a local leader to direct the work. Lessons provided by the College of Agriculture are studied and various methods discussed at the club meetings. The juniors learn in main by doing the actual work, however. At the end of the season each club member writes a story of how he or she did their work. Each club member also keeps an accurate financial record and reports on the profit or loss of the project. The purpose of the boys and girls club work is to interest the juniors in country life and better methods of farming and house-keeping.
